

1. How would you like to use Ask Me Anything in your daily life?

- ☐ To learn new things or homework.
- ☐ To play games.
- ☐ To know what to say to my friends and family.
- ☐ I don't know.

2. Do you trust Ask Me Anything responses?

- ☐ Yes, I trust Ask Me Anything like a teacher/friend.
- ☐ Yes, I trust Ask Me Anything answers.
- ☐ No, I don't trust Ask Me Anything responses.
- ☐ I'm not sure if I trust it.

3. How do you think it knows how to answer your question?

- ☐ I'm not sure how it knows the answer.
- ☐ It has a smart computer program that learns from questions and answers.
- ☐ It searches on the internet to find the answers.
- ☐ It is programmed by smart people who give the answer to it and also use the internet to find answers.

4. If Ask me Anything was capable of answering anything, would you tell it your secret or ask it for advice? Why or why not?

- ☐ I would tell my secret and ask for advice because I trust it and it might help me.
- ☐ I would tell it because it knows a lot and can guide me.
- ☐ I wouldn't tell it my secret or ask for advice because I can't trust it and it might harm me.
- ☐ I wouldn't say because I can solve my problem and I don't need help.

5. How would you describe Ask Me Anything to your friends or family?